

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS21076

This legislation seeks to encourage local farm and agriculture economies by allowing an unregulated and uninhibited relationship between the farmer and/or the farmer's agent and the end consumer of the farm product. This bill includes legislative intent which states that the encouragement of local farm and agricultural economies, including farmer's markets, will enhance the economic health of Idaho communities and physical health of Idahoans. The bill also identifies food self-sufficiency as a desired goal for Idahoans for their local communities

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the state's general fund.
